

WALLER WEEKLY NEWS

JULY 5, 2013

Another Lovechild.

Wednesday saw a turn up for the books with the sun coming out and two winners emerging at Warwick Farm. Clever Boy and Another Lovechild took the stable to 155.5 wins for the season on the Sydney Metropolitan Trainers' Premiership - just 1 win away from recording the most wins ever attained in a season.

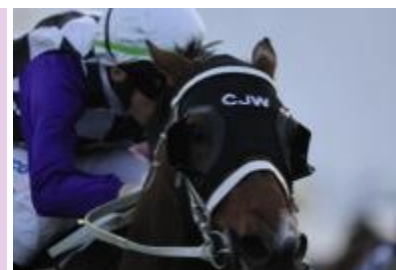

Wednesday's racing was the first mid-week fixture that offered the latest Racing NSW prize-money increases. Now worth $40,000, the winners of these races now receive $23,000, which is good to see. Chris is currently campaigning hard to try and get owners costs reduced. Prize-money increases are brilliant for horses that are running in the money however; reduced costs would benefit owners across the board. Chris has suggested a starter's bonus type system, as the fruits of this would flow down to everyone.

Tomorrow at Rosehill we have a nice team of hopefuls and with the better weather over the past few days, we expect the track to get back into the slow range. Wishing you all a safe and successful weekend, the team at Chris Waller Racing.

CLEVER BOY

Having turned a corner this preparation, Graham and Linda Huddy's Clever Boy has now strung two wins together thanks to his win at Warwick Farm on Wednesday.

In the hands of Nash Rawiller, he loomed up at the 300m mark and then put the foot down to clinch a narrow victory to win by a nose.

The cleverly named son of Street Sense out of Vocabulary may now step up to Saturday class with his next race likely to be at Rosehill on the 20th of July over 1400m.

ANOTHER LOVECHILD

Having his second run this preparation, the Ingham Family's Another Lovechild put in a very professional performance at Warwick Farm on Wednesday.

Settled just off the pace by Nash Rawiller, he burst through a gap at the top of the straight and then let down brilliantly to record a dominant 2.3 length victory.

Now with 3 wins to his name, he is likely to clash with Clever Boy in the same 1400m 3yo race at Rosehill on the 20th of July.

CHRIS' S BIGGEST FAN

On Monday at Rosehill it became very clear who Chris's biggest fan was when a dapper young Tyler Waller came running into the media room to find his Daddy!

The visit to the races by Stephanie, Tyler and Nikita, who was having her first race day experience, certainly brightened the day.

SIBLING RIVALRY

Being a big stable with 117 boxes here at Rosehill, another 10 at Flemington and of course, our horses based at the spelling and pre-training farms, we have quite a few brothers and sisters in the system.

This week we welcomed Dr Henleigh into the stable for the first time. As his name alludes to, he's the younger brother of 4-time Group 1 winner Danleigh who was recently retired and is also owned by Keith and Ruth Leonard. Like people, being a brother to a superstar doesn't guarantee success however it's interesting picking out the similar traits they carry to their siblings be they physical or temperamental.

Said Chris of the fortunate position we are in "It's nice to have relations of horses we have already had success with to train, especially when you know their siblings had ability. Take Dr Henleigh for example, he's a similar type to Danleigh and already, he has a bit of presence about him."

Following are some of the other horses in the stable with big shoes to fill thanks to their older Group 1 winning siblings:

Chateau Lafaute - Royal Descent's sister.

Disciple & Enormous Honour – Triple Honour's ½ brothers.

Domesday – Kaaptive Empress filly – A ½ sister to Pressday.

I'm Imposing – a ½ brother to Reliable Man.

Redoute's Choice – Kisma colt - A ¾ brother to Red Tracer & Shellscape.

Strategic – Mollyhawk filly – A ½ sister to Hawkspur.

Waller can see finish line for Sydney Trainers' Premiership record

Hallelujah - Chris Waller's wait to break the Sydney trainers' premiership record will hopefully finally end on Saturday. Waller was beginning to wonder if he would ever reach the all-time mark of 156 winners set by Tommy Smith and his daughter Gai Waterhouse. Read more...

Racing's Night of Champions

Tickets to the NSW Racehorse Owner's Association's awards dinner (Racing's Night of Champions) are on sale now. The night provides a great opportunity to reminisce on the season and celebrate success across the industry. This year's event is to be held in the city at The Star on Thursday 8 August.

WHAT ON EARTH DOES THAT MEAN?

Being around the horses all of the time, it's easy to take for granted what we learn by osmosis. There's plenty of horsey jargon and for those that aren't entirely up with the lingo, we have added a Horse Racing Dictionary to the website which might help you when a strange word appears in your horse's weekly update.

For example, what does it mean when Chris says a horse is 'backward'?

The all-weather surface at Boynton Park ensures that despite the weather, it's business as usual for the horses in pre-training there.

Newspaper is used for poultices on some of the horse's legs however out of respect for the great mare, this page was salvaged from the pile this week!
