

WALLER WEEKLY NEWS

JUNE 7, 2013

Disciple sprints away for a 1 length victory at Rosehill over 1200m on Saturday.

Another four winners were added to the stable's Sydney metropolitan tally this week, taking us to 147.5 for the season. At Rosehill on Saturday Disciple replicated his first up win while Canterbury on Wednesday proved a happy hunting ground for the team with a treble courtesy of Rastro, Chateau Lafaute and Done Nothin' Wrong.

The Ingham Family's Rastro broke through for a well-deserved photo opportunity after a spate of seconds and rewarded everyone for their patience with him. In the same race, Murder of Crows finished an eye-catching second and looks to be one to follow. Patience was also rewarded with Done Nothin' Wrong's owners giving him plenty of time to come back from injury while on the other hand, Chateau Lafaute, will require plenty of patience as after her impressive debut win, it's easy to get carried away with big plans for Gerry Harvey's exciting, yet still immature, full-sister to Royal Descent.

After losing Rangirangdoo, over the past fortnight the support and kind thoughts from people from all different facets of the industry has been incredible and on behalf of Chris, Neville and Jenny Morgan and the staff here, we would like to thank everyone.

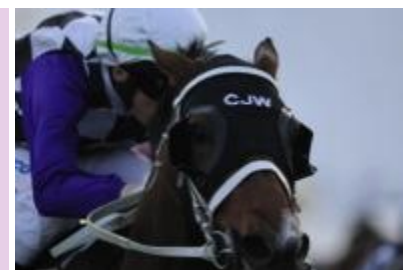

It's another busy weekend on the horizon across the country for the team, with hopefully four runners at Group 1 level providing Riva de Lago gets a start in the $1 million Stradbroke Handicap. Vilanova and Zoustar will be looking to enhance their potential value as sires in the JJ Aitkins while Hawkspur and Jim Cassidy will be looking for a Derby victory after a perfect lead up to date. For more on all of this Saturday's runners – check out this week's video preview for Chris's thoughts. For a full list of runners and form, see the homepage of the website.

Wishing you all a safe and successful weekend, the team at Chris Waller Racing.

Click here for this week's video preview.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

- THIS WEEK'S WINNERS
- MORE NEWS
- PHOTOS

DISCIPLE

Disciple, by God's Own, proved a fitting victor at Rosehill on Saturday in the Catholic Trade Training Centers Sprint over 1200m. Aided by a good ride by CWR stable-apprentice Alysha Collett he is unbeaten this preparation after winning first up a fortnight earlier. He will now be aimed at a 1350m race on the 15th of June at Rosehill.

RASTRO

In his typical front-running style, Rastro staved off a challenge from stable-mate Murder of Crows for a deserved maiden win at Canterbury. After three second placings this preparation the Ingham family's plucky son of Mossman now heads to Warwick Farm on the 25th of June where hopefully, now that he's got the winning feeling, he can carry it on.

CHATEAU LAFORTE

Gerry Harvey's impressive 2yo filly Chateau Laforte broke a few rules on debut at Canterbury on Wednesday, overcame a wide barrier and still managed to win impressively. Racing greenly in the hands of Hugh Bowman and stuck wide, she quickened impressively on straightening to win by The full-sister to the stable's recent G1 Australian Oaks winner Royal Descent (Redoute's Choice) she now heads to Baramul Stud for a well-deserved spell before she embarks on a spring 3yo campaign.

DONE NOTHIN' WRONG

After an 18 month hiatus from race day and having his second up run, Done Nothin' Wrong returned to the winners circle earlier than expected at Canterbury on Wednesday. Knuckling down in the concluding stages under the urgings of Jim Cassidy, it was a tough performance by the 5yo son of General Nediym. He has now recorded 5 wins from 15 starts with his next race likely to be at Randwick on the 22nd of June over 1600m.

Disciple

Rastro

Chateau Laforte

Done Nothin' Wrong & below with connections.

INDUSTRY NEWS ADDED TO CWR WEBSITE

Courtesy of www.theracingnetwork.com.au we are excited to have added a new feature to the Chris Waller Racing website. Located next to the CWR News tab on the stable's homepage, we now have a direct feed to the popular racing site's latest news which is updated constantly. CWR Website.

Coup Ay Tee's mother obviously didn't tell him not to play with his food. He was caught by CWR work rider Ben Cadden throwing his lucerne around his box this week.

NEWS BITES

Stable takes punt with Riva de Lago

Trainer Chris Waller is leaving nothing to chance as he waits on Stradbroke Handicap start for talented sprinter Riva De Lago.

Read more...

Red Tracer Preparing for Tatts Tiara

Sydney's premier trainer Chris Waller will have runners in all three Group One races in Brisbane on Saturday but will delay a decision on whether Red Tracer defends the Dane Ripper Stakes.

Read more...

Chris Waller Endorses Lowering Owner's Costs

Sydney's premier trainer Chris Waller doesn't support strike action but he is backing a campaign to reduce owners costs.

Read more...

Queensland Derby a Bonus for Hawkspur

Regardless of his performance in Saturday's Queensland Derby, Hawkspur has already fulfilled the expectations of trainer Chris Waller.

Read more...

The Rise and Rise of Waller Stable Shows no Sign of Slowing Down

Chris Waller arrived on the Australian racing scene without fanfare. He is set for another title, and a number that will eclipse the efforts of 156 wins shared by Waterhouse and her late father Tommy Smith.

Read more...

Waller Gives Permit a Second Chance over Cup Distance

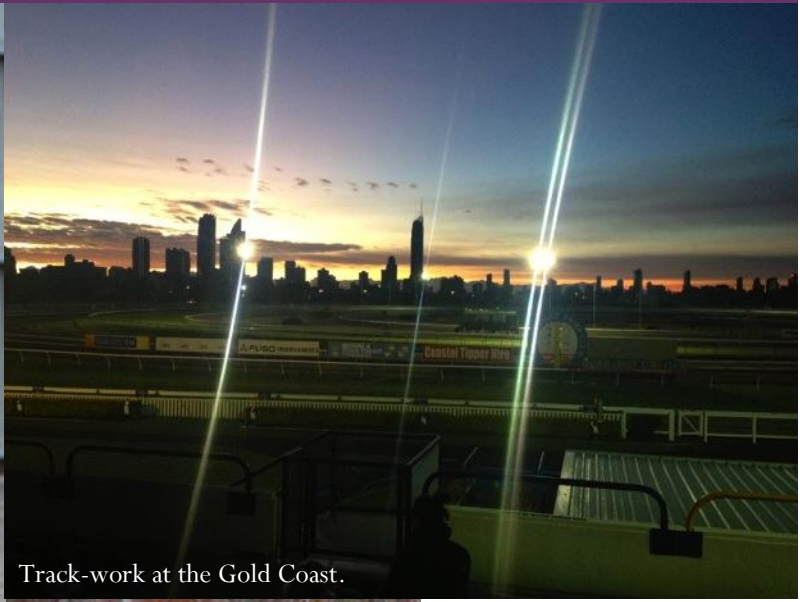

A perplexing result at his only attempt over the Melbourne Cup distance has earned Permit another chance to prove his stoutness.

Read more...

According to his rider Claire McKinnon, Triple Honor is developing into as nice a horse off the track as he was on. He's pictured below at the recent Camden Equestriad.

Deidre & Magnetic Star.

Track-work at the Gold Coast.

Photon Willie post-roll with Rob.

Chris & Miss Hufflepuff

Vilanova enjoying the sunrise in QLD.

Lee & Lucy.

Toni & Hawkspur on the Gold Coast.

Clint on the Savabeel x Rotogravure & Scotty on Balametalica.