'She is a neat, very athletic horse who moves well.

There is improvement to come which you'd expect from a late foal.

'There is a lot to like about this filly. She is a neat, very athletic horse and moves well. There is improvement to come which you would expect from a late foal. She is not bred to be a two year old, but she is bred to be a good horse.'

We felt we were getting her at half price because her brother Osipenko, should be a multiple Group One winner. We train him, I know how good he is, and I think he will win a Group One race, so we have bought a horse under market value and felt that she is a horse who is going to emerge as a late two / three year old.

There is a lot to like about her and as soon as the hammer came down, there were a lot of individuals wanting to buy her outright, but we stuck to our plan of making sure we offered her to the Osipenko ownership group first, and then any overflow will be offered to our emerging clients looking for a good horse.'
